Holiday Traditions Around the World

December is a month filled with celebrations across many cultures. In our community, we love honoring traditions that bring joy, meaning, and connection. Here are a few beloved holiday customs from around the globe:

Mexico – Las Posadas. From December 16th to 24th, families in Mexico celebrate Las Posadas, a beautiful reenactment of Mary and Joseph's search for shelter. Communities gather for candlelit processions, prayers, songs, and festive treats like buñuelos and ponche.

Germany – Christmas Markets & Advent. Germany is known for its enchanting Christmas markets (Weihnachtsmärkte), where towns are filled with handmade crafts, warm drinks, and twinkling lights. Many families also celebrate Advent, lighting a candle each Sunday leading up to Christmas.

Italy – La Befana. In Italy, children look forward not only to Christmas, but also to the arrival of La Befana on January 6th. According to tradition, this kindhearted old woman brings gifts to children on the eve of Epiphany, similar to Santa Claus.

Japan – Christmas as a Season of Joy. Although not a religious holiday in Japan, Christmas is celebrated as a season of happiness. Families enjoy light displays, gift-giving, and a unique custom: sharing a special Christmas cake topped with strawberries and cream.

Philippines – The Longest Christmas Season. The Philippines is famous for having one of the longest Christmas celebrations in the world—starting as early as September! One cherished tradition is the Simbang Gabi, a series of dawn masses leading up to Christmas Eve.

Jewish Tradition – Hanukkah. Hanukkah, the Festival of Lights, is an eight-day celebration that honors the miracle of a small amount of oil lasting eight nights. Families light the menorah, play dreidel, and share foods fried in oil, such as latkes and donuts.

African American Culture – Kwanzaa. Kwanzaa is a cultural celebration held from December 26th to January 1st. Families come together to honor seven principles such as unity, responsibility, and creativity. Each day, a candle is lit on a kinara to symbolize one principle.

Sweden – St. Lucia Day. On December 13th, Sweden celebrates St. Lucia Day, a festival of light during the winter darkness. Traditionally, a girl dressed in white with a candle crown leads a procession, bringing warm pastries and singing carols.

"I enjoyed my stay at Meadowbrook BRF because of the staff. I love them, they are so wonderful. I was worried I would not be able to smoke while at Meadowbrook, but I could, and the rules were very fair. My favorite part of my stay was socializing with fellow residents." - Jodi T. - Resident
